DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

The election of species (soy trypsin inhibitor) is maintained and is noted.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore maintained.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 24, 28-30, 38, 40, 44-46 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by copending Application No. 09/110,409 which discloses the composition of STI (soy trypsin inhibitor) and a cosmetically acceptable carrier/vehicle and discloses a method of using the composition which inherently will decrease phagocytosis or ICAM-1 expression in a mammalian cell as in the instant application.

Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the copending application, it would constitute prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e), if patented. This provisional rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) is based upon a presumption of future patenting of the copending application.

This provisional rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the copending application was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

This rejection may not be overcome by the filing of a terminal disclaimer. See In re Bartfeld, 925 F.2d 1450, 17 USPQ2d 1885 (Fed. Cir. 1991).

Applicant argues that 09/110,409 does not teach using the STI as instantly claimed. On page 20 of the instant specification, applicant admits that they can use the instant invention for treating what applicant is treating in 09/110,409, skin pigmentation. Thus there is no difference between the two applications.

Claims 38, 40, 44-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Holmgren et al. (col. 17), Hammonds, Jr. et al. (col. 36), or Hammonds et al. (col. 37).

Applicants argue that the references do not administer STI to a patient as claimed, but as claimed, the patient could have any condition.

Claims 24, 28-30, 38, 40, 44-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Costanzo.

Applicant argues that was filed after the original provisional application on which this application is based, but this is not true. The instant application is a divisional of 09/206,249 which has a filing date of 12/7/1998. Costanzo has a provisional filing date of 4/2/1998.

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 24, 28-30, 38, 40, 44-46 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-25 and 56-59 of copending Application No. 09/110,409. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

The above noted claims of the instant application and claims 1-25 and 56-59 of 09/110,409 are directed to a method of administering the same compound (STI) to a patient, thus they will inherently have the same effects on the body.

The same reasons as above are applied here. The claims of 09/110,409 read on this application because both application read on administering STI to treat skin pigmentation as seen on page 20 of the instant specification.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 24, 28-30, 38, 40, 44-46 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-25, 56-59 of copending Application No. 09/110,409. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter, as follows:

The claims of the instant application are obvious over the claims of 09/110,409 since it is obvious to add a cosmetically acceptable carrier/vehicle to the claims of 09/110,409 as taught in the instant application. It is also obvious to use such a composition as claimed in 09/110,409 for the method of the instant application since adding a cosmetically acceptable carrier/vehicle is taught in the instant application and both applications teaching treating a patient with their respective compositions and the composition of 09/110,409 will inherently decrease phagocytosis or ICAM-1 expression in a mammalian cell as in the instant application.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

The same reasons as above are applied here. The claims of 09/110,409 read on this application because both application read on administering STI to treat skin pigmentation as seen on page 20 of the instant specification.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
